the Block Number system starting from April 1, 2026, with the goal of keeping card text easy to understand.

What are Block Numbers?

Block Numbers refer to the number printed in the lower right corner of each card.

These numbers are updated every year, with booster packs 1 to 4 being Block 1, booster packs 5 to 8 being Block 2, and so on.

The Block Number system will be implemented from April 1, 2026, and these Block Numbers will be lates regarding the Block Number Revision

Starting from April 2026, updates will be made to the Block Numbers of certain card numbers to reflect changes in the player environment. This is to clarify which cards can be used in Standard Regulation tournaments and events.

Super Parallel Rare Cards and Cards with the Same Card Number Regardless of reprints, these cards will remain legal in Standard Regulation.

From April 2026 onward, newly released Super Parallel Rare cards and cards with the same number will bear a Block Number of “X,” ensuring legality similar to existing Super Parallel Rares.

Other Cards

Block Numbers will be updated based on the following conditions:

nts After April 1, 2026

Starting from Wednesday, April 1, 2026, we will adopt two regulations, Standard Regulation and Extra Regulation, for tournaments.

STANDARD REGULATION

In the Standard Regulation, we will adopt the Block Number System, allowing players to build their decks from a card pool of approximately 3 years' worth of the latest cards.

Therefore, this regulation features the following:

CARD GAME

- Players can battle in a refined, up-to-date environment.

We believe this will provide an enjoyable experience for everyone.

Regarding the cards that can be used, for example, in tournaments from April 2026 to March 2027, cards ② to ⑤ will be allowed, while cards ① will not be allowed.

In tournaments from April 2027 to March 2028, cards ③ to ⑥ will be allowed, while cards ① to ② will not be allowed.

Standard Regulation

[Usable Cards]

- Cards from the past 3 years

[Example]

Date	Usable Cards
Tournaments held from April 2026–March 2027	Cards with Block Number 2 3 4 5 i.e. Block Number 1 are not eligible.
Tournaments held from April 2027–March 2028	Cards with Block Number 3 4 5 6 i.e. Block Numbers 1 and 2 are not eligible.

For cards with updated Block Numbers, all past illustrations will become available. Of course, cards marked with Block Number ① will also remain usable.

EXTRA REGULATION

In the Extra Regulation, you can build your decks using cards from Block Number ① to the most recent cards.

Therefore, this regulation features the following:

- You can play with your favorite cards from previous sets.
- You can refer to the entire past card pool and engage in battles with highly flexible deck composition.

We believe this will provide an enjoyable experience for everyone.

To offer a different kind of enjoyment compared to the Standard Regulation, we are preparing additional regulation details. Please stay tuned for further updates.

From Block Number 1 up to the latest cards.

[Example]	Date	Usable Cards
	Tournaments held from April 2026–March 2027	Cards with Block Number ①②③④⑤
	Tournaments held from April 2027–March 2028	Cards with Block Number ①②③④⑤⑥

Regarding the cards that can be used, for example, in tournaments from April 2026 to March 2027, all cards from ① to ⑤ will be allowed, and in tournaments from April 2027 to March 2028, all cards from ① to ⑥ will be allowed.

Additionally, we are working on providing a unique and enjoyable experience in the Extra Regulation, which offers a wider card pool. We are considering various options to enhance this experience.

Details on this will also be prepared, so please stay tuned for the announcement.

Conclusion

ONE PIECE

for deck building would include four years' worth of cards by 2026, and ten years' worth of cards by 2032. We also want to ensure that card text remains easy to understand and accessible for all players.

Our development team sincerely wishes to maintain simple and enjoyable card text for everyone.

We apologize for any concerns that this announcement may cause among players, but we remain committed to developing the ONE PIECE CARD GAME as a card game that will last for decades to come. We hope that you continue to enjoy the game as it evolves.
